

Types of Details

1. Match the type detail to its definition.

Type of Detail	Definition
_____ fact	1. somebody who has education, training or experience related to the topic _____ statistic	2. a general truth known to most people _____ expert opinion	3. to say what somebody/something is like _____ description	4. a piece of information shown using a number

2. Identify each type of detail.

- a. One example is the “kaisen-don” which is a bowl of sashimi on top of rice. _____
- b. According to the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fishery (2014, p. 21), Hokkaido produces 77% of the potatoes that are distributed in Japan. _____
- c. The Okinawa Prefectural Office (2014, para. 3) says “Okinawa was influenced by neighboring countries which also gave influence to the food culture.” _____
- d. Oden has ingredients stewed in a light soy-flavored dashi broth. This style of stewing was made in the Edo period _____